Tina and he have three daughters and 6 grandchildren. He hopes to help improve the quality of life in the community.

Sandra Fischer: Sandra moved to Stony Creek in 1970 with Phil and their four children. She has a Masters in Environmental Education, and retired after teaching science at Westbrook Middle School for twenty-five years. She has been active in many civic affairs within the community and is a multi-term member of The Stony Creek Association board.

Ed Gagliardi: I was born in Stony Creek and have always had a presence here. I now am the third generation in my home. I have lived here for 15 years. However my memories of the summers and visits to my Grandparents ( Meneguzzi) always gave me the feeling of Stony Creek being home. I am retired from the ATT where I managed business case analysis and product profitability work among other functions. I now enjoy what Stony Creek has to offer.

Katina Gionteris: I may not have lived here all my life but I played at the Stony Creek Community Center and worked at the Indian Point Club as a kid. I moved here in 1988 with my mother and brother (Jimmy Balacos). Currently I live on Howd Ave with my husband and 3 sons. I would like to focus on community minded activities that make Stony Creek the special place it is and to promote positive activities in Stony Creek.

Jerald Greenvall: Jake, a life-long Stony Creek resident, is the former Stony Creek Association tax collector for twenty-plus years. He retired as a systems analyst from SNET. He is a fifty-year member of Rescue Co. #5 and was a member of the committee that planned and implemented conversion of the old St. Therese Church into a Stony Creek Community Center in the 1970s. He is treasurer of the Stony Creek Cemetery Association.

Jill Hodson:

Sam Kirby: Sam has lived in Stony Creek fifteen years and raised two children here. In 2003, he bought a home on Thimble Islands Road. Sam is a graduate of Yale College and Yale School of Architecture. He is currently an Associate of Newman Architects in New Haven. He is a member of the Thimble Islands Sailing Club and volunteers at the Stony Creek Museum. Sam is interested in the character of the architecture and coastline of this unique community.

Diane Brecciaroli-Latkowski: Owns and operates DBL Associates, a Branford based Executive Search Firm. A Previous board member and was instrumental in the negotiations to lower the cost of the new playground. Known in both her personal and professional life for her high integrity and ethics as well as her genuine concern for anyone she comes in contact with, she will bring great attention to detail and careful consideration to the issues that concern Creekers. She has lived in Stony Creek for fourteen years.

Mark Richter: Laura and I have owned and operated the Stony Creek Package Store for 10 years. As a board member I will always have "The Creeks" best interest in mind. Every day I learn more history and would like to help sustain and improve the quality of life we all enjoy. I am proud to live and work in what I feel is one of the best places, and I look forward to doing so for many years to come.

James Walker: Many in our community are familiar with my decades of elective public service (SCA, RTM, BCTV) which I hope to continue. There are many quality candidates whose only motive is to serve our village well and fairly.
